It is suitable as a beginning of the year or end of the year activity for middle or high school students. I have used this resource with 6th graders and 8th graders. It is fully aligned to Common Core Standards, and focuses on making inferences based on textual evidence, discerning important events in a text and writing a narrative about one of the characters. The unit includes 3 tasks that will take 8 days to complete, if classes are an hour long. Teachers could teach this unit as an introductory unit in a middle or high school class in order to help build skills in making inferences. It could also be a great culminating end-of-year activity, or function as a stand-alone unit, at any point in the year. The unit is structured so that the majority of the work and analysis can be done independently, even at the middle school level. This unit DOES NOT include the text of "Ordeal by Cheque." The full text is available in multiple places online. Simply search for "Ordeal by Cheque. If you do not wish to purchase the entire unit, individual lessons are available. StandardsRead closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.Determine central ideas or themes of a text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas.Analyze how and why individuals, events, and ideas develop and interact over the course of a text. Sr. and wife move to France, and open up a bank account there, leaving their old Hollywood account to Lawrence Jr. along with $200,000 they gifted him before that. beforehand, Jr. had gotten married, and settled down in his parent's old house. soon, however, he starts making strange purchases. after buying things for his wife, a bunch of flower purchases are made, another ring, then an unknown person. most likely a lender, shows up. then, as you see in this scene, he goes to court, gets sued, and loses. soon after the trial, along with legal fees, Lawrence Jr. is forced to pay $175,000 to his wife, along with $50,000 to the woman he had an affair with. soon, daily checks to Tony Spagoni start being written, then a check to a Peter Ventizzi, and then he is taken to a hospital. just 10 days later, a check to Dr. David McCoy is signed by Lawrence Exeter, Sr. but the Sr. is scratched out. a final check to the Hollywood Mortuary, signed by Lawrence Exeter, means that the elder of the two is burying his son.
